- Sh. Mithun Manhas – Member Cricket Operations & Development

Member Administration, Brig. Anil Gupta (Retd.), brought to the notice of all a couple of letters received from DC Srinagar and our response given to them. It was observed by Sh. Sunil Sethi, Member Legal that ever since the visit of Chief Secretary to Sher-I-Kashmir Stadium, Srinagar, there is an effort by the Local Administrators, Srinagar to interfere with relation to Sher-I-Kashmir Stadium, Srinagar. The main issue revolves around the ownership of the land on which the stadium stands. As per the records available with JKCA, the land has been mutated in favour of JKCA. However, the land documents are not available in the office of JKCA at Srinagar and as per the staff, all the records have been lost during the damage of floods in 2014.

A subsequent letter asking JKCA to furnish balance sheets for the last 03 years was also discussed along with the reply given to it. The Sub-Committee members apprehended that administration may issue a harsh order on the subject. It has been decided to place all the facts before the Hon'ble Members of Committee, BCCI.
